

Proposed changes to Rule 14.

Current Wording

14.

- a. The Mixed, Men's and Ladies leagues will be treated separately for the purpose of nomination of players. A club must nominate six members of each team other than its lowest or only team in writing to the League Secretary before any team plays its first match. Failure to do this will result in each team being deducted two points.
- b. Nominated players will be ineligible to play for lower teams.
- c. All players nominated for a team have to play at least four matches during the season in that team or a higher team.
- d. A replacement must be nominated if a club becomes aware during the season that an original nominated player will be unable to complete his/her required number of matches.
- e. A player may not play in a team if he/she has in the same season appeared in three or more matches for any more senior team.

Proposed Wording (Changes highlighted in YELLOW)

14.

- a. The Mixed, Men's and Ladies leagues will be treated separately for the purpose of nomination of players. A club must nominate six members of each team other than its lowest or only team in writing to the League Secretary before any team plays its first match. Failure to do this will result in each team (except the lowest) being deducted two points.
- b. Nominated players will be ineligible to play for lower teams.
- c. All players nominated for a team have to play:-
  1. at least four matches in a division of seven teams or more during the season in that team or a higher team.
  2. at least three matches in a division of six teams or less during the season in that team or a higher team.
- d. A replacement must be nominated if a club becomes aware during the season that an original nominated player will be unable to complete his/her required number of matches. If a club fails to comply with this the league reserves the right to impose penalty points on the offending team/s.
- e. A player may not play in a team if he/she has in the same season appeared in three or more matches for any more senior team.
